

VICTORIAN ABORIGINAL HEALTH SERVICE
Caring for the Community

Continuous Quality Improvement Lead

- A supportive workplace that will help you to develop your skills further.
- Not for profit Salary Packaging available

About the Organisation

The Victorian Aboriginal Health Service (VAHS) was established in 1973 to address the specific medical needs of Victorian Aboriginal communities. 2023 marked a landmark year as VAHS proudly celebrated its 50-year of providing a comprehensive range of medical, dental, allied health and social services for our community.

As well as providing a variety of medical services, VAHS is committed to supporting the well-being of the community through contributions to community events and activities. VAHS is also committed to assisting research into the ongoing needs of the community.

VAHS is a child safe organisation, committed to child safety and wellbeing, and recruits' staff in accordance with the Child Safe Standards Victoria.

About the Opportunity

The role is primarily focused on the effective development and implementation of continuous quality improvement, risk management and audit frameworks and associated processes and systems.

Key Selection Criteria

To be considered for this role you must have the following:

- The capability and engagement to understand the philosophy and principles of Aboriginal Community Control and transforming it into practice.
- Demonstrated capability to achieve the key responsibilities.
- At least 5 years' experience in developing and implementing continuous quality improvement, risk management and audit frameworks and associated processes and systems.
- Experience in project management.
- High level of interpersonal, communication and influencing skills

Qualifications:

- Tertiary qualification in related field (e.g. Quality Assurance, Commerce/Business, Nursing).
- Graduate Diploma or Masters in Health Management

How to Apply

Please forward your covering letter (addressing the key selection criteria) and resume to employment@vahs.org.au before Sunday August 4, 9pm 2024.